There are two chili judging categories: Judges' Choice and People's Choice. Chili judging by the public begins at noon and continues through 3pm, or until all chili is gone. The winner of the People's Choice category will be determined by the chili booth with the highest number of votes. For each wristband purchased by the public, they will receive one voting ticket. That is the ticket they will use to vote for their favorite. You want that ticket from each of the chili tasters, so do your best. Each chili team will be provided a VOTE HERE jar to be displayed on their table to gather their tickets. At 11:30am teams will provide 1- quart of chili for judging by the committee. Event staff will be walking around to collect your quart of chili to be brought to the judges tent.
